Lanigan, Ryan, Malcolm & Doyle, P.C. HAS SUCCESSFUL REVIEW BY PEERS

Gaithersburg, MD, January 26, 2015 – Lanigan, Ryan, Malcolm & Doyle, P.C. (LRMD) announced today that it has successfully completed a rigorous peer review of its accounting and auditing practice. The reviewers concluded that the firm's system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice in effect for the year ended June 30, 2014, has been suitably designed and complied with to provide reasonable assurance of performing and reporting in conformity with applicable professional standards in all material respects. The firm has passed its peer reviews for every year of its existence. The firm is also a member of the Employee Benefit Plan Audit Quality Center (EBPAQC). This review fulfills the EBPAQC membership requirement for an annual review.

LRMD participates in the Peer Review Program, a practice monitoring program approved by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the national professional organization of CPAs. A firm participating in the Peer Review Program must have an independent review of its accounting and auditing practice every three years. The review was conducted under the auspices of the Maryland Association of Certified Public Accountants following standards issued by the AICPA.

The peer review of Lanigan, Ryan, Malcolm & Doyle, P.C. was performed by a team of licensed, independent CPAs who qualified under the program's requirements for service as reviewers.

Its peer review rating of pass indicates LRMD meets the accounting profession's highest standards of quality and professionalism. If requested, the firm will provide a copy of the report on the results of the review to all interested parties.

Lanigan, Ryan, Malcolm & Doyle, P.C. serves commercial construction contractors, government contractors, nonprofit organizations and other clients throughout the Greater Washington, DC area. The firm provides a full range of services for owners and their closely-held businesses to help them grow and reach their potential.

The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, founded in 1887, is the world's largest association representing the accounting profession, with nearly 377,000 members in 128 countries. AICPA members represent many areas of practice, including business and industry, public practice, government, education and consulting; membership is also available to accounting students and CPA candidates. The AICPA sets ethical standards for the profession and U.S. auditing standards for audits of private companies, non-profit organizations and federal, state and local governments. It develops and grades the Uniform CPA Examination.

The AICPA maintains offices in New York, Washington, D.C., Durham, N.C., and Ewing, N.J.
