Dixon Hughes Goodman Names Michael D. Skretta Partner

Tysons, VA, Oct. 31, 2014—Dixon Hughes Goodman LLP has named Michael D. Skretta, CPA, as a Partner for the firm’s Tysons, VA office. Having spent 13 years providing tax services to clients in multiple industries and thriving at Dixon Hughes Goodman, Mike is well-deserving of this new title.

A graduate of Oakland University with a Bachelor’s Degree in Accounting, Mike specializes in government contracting, real estate and professional services. He has experience working within these industries with consolidated corporations, closely held S corporations, multi-state taxation, and high net worth individuals.

Mike was designated as a “Super CPA” in corporate taxation by Virginia Business Magazine and his peers for 2012 and 2013. He is a member of both the AICPA and VSCPA and has served as the treasurer for the Ashburn Volunteer Fire and Rescue Department.

“We are excited for Mike to continue growing with us as a Partner,” said Brian Carlton, Regional Managing Partner for Dixon Hughes Goodman. “He has contributed a great deal to the firm, consistently providing fresh ideas, and we are excited for him to continue supporting our clients with his excellent service in his new role.”
