DHG Healthcare Announces Seven New Partners and Principals

Rockville, Md., November 4, 2015 – DHG Healthcare, the national healthcare practice of Dixon Hughes Goodman LLP, is pleased to announce that the firm admitted seven new dedicated healthcare partners and principals, effective November 1, 2015. The new admissions into the partnership are reflective of the growth seen across the firm and the career accomplishments of the professionals being admitted.

“I am both thrilled and honored to recognize these new partners for their significant accomplishments,” said Brad Benton, Managing Partner, DHG Healthcare. “Partnership admission is a profound career milestone that recognizes integrity, leadership, hard work and commitment – while, at the same time, also serving as an important endorsement of forward-looking potential and future contribution expectation.”

The new DHG Healthcare partners and principals are as follows:

Josh Berlin, Healthcare Consulting, New York

Hal Guthrie, Healthcare Consulting, Atlanta

Wayne Little, Healthcare Consulting, Atlanta

Scott Spohn, Healthcare Consulting, Atlanta

Tara Theodossis, Tax, Asheville

Kelly Thrift, Assurance, Atlanta

Courtney Young, Healthcare Consulting, Rockville

“Our new partners in the class of 2015 reflect a practical proof point that our growth agenda is in fact a platform of real career opportunity for our professionals. Additionally, I recognize as well that everyone at DHG Healthcare fundamentally enables the success of each of our new partners. Our combined commitment expresses the best spirit of what it means to be a partner in our Firm,” said Benton.
