Dixon Hughes Goodman Named Finalist for SmartCEO's Healthiest Company Awards 2016

Tysons, Va., June 23, 2016 - For the second year, Dixon Hughes Goodman ("DHG") was announced as a finalist for SmartCEO's Healthiest Company Awards. This program recognizes companies that demonstrate a commitment to their employees through health and wellness programs. Through these programs, health conscious companies are investing in the strength of their business' futures and the futures of their employees and families.

An independent committee of local business leaders selected finalists based on engagement, effectiveness and return on investment. SmartCEO will share DHG and the other finalists' inspirational stories in the September/October issue of the SmartCEO magazine and online for an audience of more than 100,000 CEOs and C-level executives in the Mid-Atlantic region. The winners will be announced at an awards reception in September 2016, held in Washington, DC.

"We are honored to once again be a finalist in SmartCEO's Healthiest Company Awards," said Brian Carlton, Metro DC Managing Partner. "We recruit, develop and retain best-in-class individuals, and we believe in providing them with the tools they need to live fulfilling, healthy lives."

DHG utilizes a Wellness Formula comprised of four key components- Community, Family, Mental Health and Physical Health. From a firm-wide focus on flexibility and a dedicated effort to give back to our communities to numerous mental and physical health benefits, DHG shows its people that it has their best interests at heart. This, combined with continuous health and wellness enhancements, illustrates why DHG is a Healthiest Company contender.
