Preferred Insurance Services, Inc. Announces Latest New Hire and Promotions

Fairfax, VA - Preferred Insurance Services, Inc. is excited to announce the hire of our newest associate, Colleen Mikus, and the promotion of four employees: Lyn Uram, Chasity Stoots, Sarah Wohlford and Joelle Cutro.

We are excited to announce that Colleen Mikus has joined our team as the Commercial Lines Marketing Associate. Colleen worked at Preferred as an intern while she finished her degree at George Mason. She left in 2015 to pursue a post graduate degree at The University of Manchester. Colleen's energy and intelligence is a great fit for us and our team!

We are excited to announce the promotion of Lyn Uram to Commercial Lines Jr. Account Manager. Lyn was hired in January 2016. Lyn has been a significant part of our service and endorsements department and has made a huge impact in our ability to provide top notch, value added service to our commercial clients.

We are pleased to announce the promotion of Chasity Stoots to the role of Director of Risk Management focusing on assisting our diverse clientele with their risk management and loss control needs. Chasity Stoots has been with Preferred for 4.5 years. She has 20 years of industry experience. She began her insurance carrier in the Large Group Benefit arena working with Fortune 500 companies. She made the move to Property & Casualty in 2003. She has specialized in construction related risks throughout her career but also has extensive experience with large property accounts, financial institutions and construction related bonding.

We are happy to announce the promotion of Sarah Wohlford to the role of Director of Training. Sarah will be coordinating and leading the training of Preferred Insurance personnel. Sarah has been with Preferred for 4.5 years. She has 7 years commercial insurance experience working with a wide variety of industry segments including construction, property associations, restaurants and technology.

We are also pleased to announce the promotion of Joelle Cutro to Director of Marketing for the agency. Joelle has been with Preferred since 2014 and has helped to grow the strategic marketing plan. Her marketing responsibilities include increasing brand awareness, social media, email marketing campaigns, and the company website. In addition to marketing responsibilities she will continue to manage commercial clients and handle public relations activities for the agency. In her spare time she represents Preferred as Special Programs Coordinator for Applied Client VA Chapter.
