Tamara Vineyard Promoted to Partner at Dixon Hughes Goodman

Tysons, Va., November 18, 2015 – Tamara Vineyard has been named as the newest assurance partner for Dixon Hughes Goodman’s (DHG) Tysons, Virginia practice and the Metro Washington DC Market.

Tamara has been with DHG since 2005, and currently serves as a member of both the Not-for-Profit and Government industry practices for the Firm. A Certified Public Accountant with more than 17 years of experience, Vineyard will continue to assist clients in all phases of their audit, tax and accounting lifecycles. In addition to her knowledge in the not-for-profit sector, she brings considerable experience providing assurance and tax services for a variety of small to medium-sized businesses in a number of industries.

“We are so excited to congratulate Tamara on becoming a partner,” says Brian Carlton, Managing Partner – Metro DC. “Her hard work and dedication have solidified her as a vital part of DHG. She will continue to serve our clients and community well, and I am eager to see where her career takes her.”

Before joining DHG in 2005, Tamara worked for public accounting firms in McLean, Alexandria, and Danville, Virginia. She also has over three years’ experience working in the private sector.

Vineyard earned a Bachelor’s degree in Accounting from Old Dominion University. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Greater Washington Society of CPAs. She serves as the Audit Committee Chair and as a Governance Advisory Committee Member for the Girl Scouts of the Nation’s Capital. Additionally, Vineyard is MVLE’s Audit Committee Chair, a Board Member and a member of the Governance Committee.
