

Scaffold Resource, LLC to Reach New Heights as it Selects Gary Boncich as New President

For Immediate Release:

Scaffold Resource, LLC is thrilled to announce the appointment of Gary Boncich as its new President effective January 10, 2022.

Gary has been an integral member of the scaffold and access community for nearly 20 years, leading several operations, both locally and nationally. During his time in the business, Gary has reached unparalleled success managing multi-functional teams, driving business improvements and processes, scaling organizations, and creating a 'team first' environment that embraces both communication and culture. Gary most recently served as Director of Commercial Metro Growth, for BrandSafway, LLC, where he concentrated on organic growth, M&A activity, and operational excellence across the North American market. Gary brings his wealth of industry knowledge and experience, along with a high level of energy, drive, and focus that couldn't be better timed for Scaffold Resource's exciting future.

Gary will take over for Charlie Weiss, who has led Scaffold Resource as President since 1998. Charlie will remain a co-owner with Jeffery Belfield and will assume the roles of Founder and Co-Founder.

Commenting on Gary Boncich's appointment, Charlie Weiss said: "Gary is a dynamic leader within the scaffold industry, who possesses a skillset that will undoubtedly help drive our business to the next level. Throughout his career, he has demonstrated the ability to successfully apply communicative and operational processes to enhance both strategic and cultural initiatives. Scaffold Resource is a family environment that will benefit from Gary's personality, creativity, and team first approach. I am excited to have Gary onboard, pass the torch, and work with him for many years to come."

Reflecting on his selection, Gary said: "Charlie and Jeff are amazing individuals, that have built an outstanding business. What many people may not realize is, this business was built by utilizing unique methods like unwavering dedication, putting people first, and applying the experience and fundamental work ethic that was engrained in Charlie and Jeff. At first, this may seem unconventional, but when you look closer, it is what makes Scaffold Resource a special place to work. When you combine amazing people with great leaders, the outcome is beautiful; one that yields an energetic and fun environment. I am blessed to be part of this team and look forward to leading the Scaffold Resource family for many years to come.

I have worked within the access industry for a long time, but never have I been this excited and energized to begin a journey and work with such an amazing team of professionals. Scaffold Resource is loaded with talent and expertise, from Benji Coffey, Jim Vecchione, Mark Tsirigos, Bill Schikner, Loretta Lewis, Jose Lopez, and a dynamic sales and operational team. I look forward to driving Scaffold Resource to the next level, while cultivating long lasting relationships with the entire team! I am ready to run!"

On Gary's appointment, Jim Vecchione, General Manager, said: "I am excited for the opportunity to work with Gary at Scaffold Resource. The energy, knowledge, and get-it-done attitude that he will bring to the company will position us for greater success for years to come. Charlie Weiss has assembled a team to prepare for the future, and I cannot wait to see what lies ahead for us. It's not often that you get to be involved in a transitional period of a company's growth and I consider myself fortunate to be able to do this with Gary." VP of Operations, Benji Coffey said: "After being on the Scaffold Resource team for the past 18 years and seeing the company become an industry leader in the market, it is very exciting to see another extremely talented individual within the industry joining the Scaffold Resource family to help lead us to the next level!"

Born and raised in the Philadelphia Metropolitan region, Gary has served in many capacities within the access industry, including sales, operational management, project management, Branch Management, and most recently Director of Commercial Metro Growth for North America. He has been a Maryland resident for 7 years and enjoys spending time with his beautiful wife Stephanie, and amazing children Ryan (7) and Abigail (5). In his spare time, Gary enjoys spending time outdoors and traveling with his family, coaching sports, and training for triathlon events!
